The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday December 27, to Tuesday December 30, 1760.

St. James's, December 30.

THE following Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Knights of the Shire, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Hereford, has been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Knights of the Shire, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Hereford.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave to approach your Sacred Perſon with our Condoleances on Account of the Death of our late Sovereign your Royal Grandfather, whoſe Loſs we univerſally lament; which nothing could have compenſated but your own moſt Royal, juſt, and glorious Acceſſion to the Throne.

And now, Great Sir, what Briton can reflect on the moſt delightful and almoſt unbounded Proſpect before his Eyes of the Halcyon Days, that Providence has given him, by having placed the Crown of theſe Realms on the Head of a Prince born amongſt us, and whoſe moſt gracious Declarations have aſſured us, that his own Royal Heart is truly Britiſh; who can reflect on this, without the utmoſt Tranſport and Exceſs of Joy!

Your Majeſty will therefore be pleaſed to ſuffer us to lay this our moſt humble Profeſſion of Duty and Reſpect at your Royal Feet, and to pray for your long and proſperous Reign over a grateful and moſt happy People.

The following Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Salop, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the High Sheriff of the ſaid County, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Gentlemen Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Salop.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Salop, preſume, with the utmoſt Humility, to expreſs our Concern for the Death of your Majeſty's Royal Grandfather, our late moſt gracious Sovereign, whoſe Memory will be for ever dear to us.

Be pleaſed to accept of our moſt ſincere Congratulations on your Majeſty's happy Acceſſion to the Throne of theſe Kingdnms: May your Majeſty long poſſeſs the ſame, and reign in the Hearts of all your faithful and loyal Subjects: May the ſame Stability and Wiſdom always attend your Majeſty's Councils, that diſtinguiſhed thoſe of your Royal Grandfather; which cannot fail, with the Aſſiſtance of Divine Providence, to produce Succeſs to your Fleets and Armies, during the Continuance of this juſt and neceſſary War; and, in the End, procure an honourable and laſting Peace, to a grateful, free, and happy People, who are governed by a Prince, that glories in the Name of Briton.

Dated at Shrewſbury, this 6th Day of December, 1760.

[Price Six-pence.]

The following Addreſs of the Lieutenant, Deputy Lieutenants, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen and Clergy of the County of Radnor, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Right Hon. the Earl of Powis: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lieutenant, Deputy Lieutenants, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen and Clergy of the County of Radnor.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lieutenant, Deputy Lieutenants, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen and Clergy of the County of Radnor, humbly beg Leave to approach your Sacred Perſon, with Hearts full of Concern for the Loſs we have ſuſtained by the Death of His late Majeſty, your Royal Grandfather; a Wound, which nothing but the Conſideration of your Princely Virtues can heal. Permit us therefore, unfeignedly to congratulate your Majeſty upon your Acceſſion to the Throne of theſe Realms.

We reflect, with Gratitude, upon the great Bleſſings theſe Nations enjoyed und.r the Reign of His late Majeſty: And from your Majeſty's Royal Virtues, what may not a dutiful and loyal People expect under your auſpicious Government.

We cannot but with Pleaſure acknowledge your great Goodneſs, ſo early diſplayed, by your Declarations of preſerving, unalterably, our happy Conſtitution both in Church and State: Such gracious Intentions, ſupported by Royal Authority, muſt be productive of the beſt Effects.

Suffer us, Sir, with all Humility, to expreſs the moſt faithful Aſſurances of our Zeal for the Proſperity and Happineſs of your Royal Perſon and Government; and of our ſincereſt Wiſhes, that you may long reign over a dutiful and grateful People.

The following Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Corke, having been tranſmitted to his Grace the Duke of Bedford, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To His moſt excellent Majeſty George the Third, King of Great Britain, France and Ireland, Defender of the Faith,

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Corke.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Corke, humbly beg Leave to take this firſt Opportunity of approaching your Sacred Perſon, and moſt ſincerely condoleing your Majeſty on the Death of our late moſt gracious Sovereign, the beſt of Kings; and joyfully to congratulate your Majeſty on your peaceable Acceſſion to the Throne of your Anceſtors.

We ſhall ever have in grateful Remembrance the glorious Revolution of Eighty Eight, which paved the Way for this happy Event, and bleſſed theſe Kingdoms with a Race of Kings, who have, by their Wiſdom and Valour, and by their unparalleled Victories over our implacable Enemies in all Parts of the Globe, raiſed the Britiſh Name and Dominions to the higheſt Pitch of Glory.

We

We beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we ſhall, on all Occaſions, be ready to ſacrifice our Lives and Fortunes in Support of your Majeſty's undoubted Title; and we have nothing further to add, but to implore the Divine Providence, by whom Kings reign, and Kingdoms flouriſh, to grant our moſt ardent Wiſhes, that your Reign may be long and glorious, and that our lateſt Poſterity may be governed by a Prince deſcended from the moſt illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor and Capital Burgeſſes, Clergy, and other Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Penryn, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Right Honourable the Lord Viſcount Falmouth, Recorder of the ſaid Borough, and the Honourable Major General Boſcawen, one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor and Capital Burgeſſes, Clergy, and other Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Penryn in the County of Cornwall.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Capital Burgeſſes, Clergy, and other Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Penryn, being truly ſenſible of the great Loſs the Nation hath ſuſtained, by the ſudden and unexpected Death of our late moſt gracious Sovereign, your Royal Grandfather, beg Leave to condole with your Majeſty on this melancholy Occaſion; and, at the ſame Time, we take the Liberty (amidſt the univerſal Acclamations of a free and united People) to teſtify our Joy at your Majeſty's happy Acceſſion to the Throne of theſe Kingdoms, and to beſeech your Majeſty to accept our ſincere Congratulations on this great Event.

Permit us, Dread Sir, with all Humility, to aſſure your Majeſty of our inviolable Attachment to your ſacred Perſon and Government; and that our Prayers and moſt ardent Wiſhes will ever be, that your Majeſty's Reign may be long and glorious, over an affectionate, dutiful, and obedient People.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Guildhall of the ſaid Borough, the fifteenth Day of December, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of the Town of Tenby, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Sir William Owen, Bart. Repreſentative in Parliament for the County of Pembroke, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of the Town of Tenby in the County of Pembroke.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful Subjects of this ancient and loyal Borough, beg Leave to unite with the reſt of our Fellow-Subjects, in our ſincere Congratulations on your Acceſſion to the Throne of theſe Realms; which has given us great Conſolation in our Day of Trouble, for the Loſs of our late Sovereign your Royal Grandfather, whoſe Virtues adorned the Crown he wore, and diſtinguiſhed it with eminent Luſtre amongſt all the Thrones of Europe. We muſt, with great Gratitude, always acknowledge, that He was a very able Pilot to theſe Kingdoms, in a very ſtormy and dangerous Seaſon; when ſeveral mighty Princes of the Papal Religion had collected their whole Strength to overwhelm the Proteſtant Intereſt in Germany. This engaged him in a neceſſary War in Alliance with the magnanimous King of Pruſſia; and Heaven has given very fair Teſtimonies to the Juſtice of his Cauſe, by the many ſignal Victories that he and his Allies obtained in the various Proſecutions of it. But he lived not long enough to ſee His Labours crowned with a General and Honourable Peace. The Glory of Effecting this, we hope is reſerved to be the peculiar Felicity of your Majeſty's Reign; and your Majeſty's known Virtues, formed on the Model of your Royal Grandfather's, afford us the moſt comfortable Aſſurances of it. We ſee, with great Pleaſure, your Majeſty on your firſt Entrance on the Throne, recommending to your Subjects the Practice of True Religion and Virtue: May we all unite to promote theſe gracious and good Deſigns of your Majeſty, that your Throne, already guarded by the Love and Affection, may be further eſtabliſhed by the Righteouſneſs of your People. Thus we may hope, that the God of all Mercies will favourably accept our Prayers for your Majeſty's long and proſperous Reign over us; and entirely ſubdue before you thoſe haughty Enemies, who, whilſt in a Condition to carry on a War, will not accept of any Terms that may inſure us a ſafe and laſting Peace.

Given under the Common Seal of the ſaid Borough, the Ninth Day of December, in the Year of our Lord, 1760.

The following Addreſs of the Principal Keeper, Deputy Keeper, Commiſſioners and Writers to the Signet in North Britain, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Andrew Fletcher, Eſq; Repreſentative in Parliament for the Burghs of Lauder, Haddington, &c. being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Principal Keeper, Deputy Keeper, Commiſſioners and Writers to your Majeſty's Signet in North Britain.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE the Principal Keeper, Deputy Keeper, Commiſſioners and Writers to your Majeſty's Signet, humbly beg Leave to expreſs our ſincere Concern for that affecting Loſs ſuſtained by your Majeſty and this Nation, in the Death of our late moſt Gracious Sovereign, whoſe juſt and equal Government fixed the Hearts of His Subjects, made His Reign happy at home, and glorious abroad.

Permit us, with unfeigned Joy, and with Hearts full of Loyalty and Affection, to congratulate your Majeſty's Acceſſion to the Throne. The Unanimity ſhewn upon this Occaſion, is a ſure Proof of the well-founded Opinion which your Majeſty's Subjects entertain of your Royal Virtues, and muſt be productive of the beſt Conſequences.

May the Cauſe of Liberty ſtill proſper under your Majeſty's Government; and the Efforts of its Enemies be happily baffled, till thereby Peace is eſtabliſhed upon a ſolid and laſting Foundation: And may your Majeſty's Reign be long and proſperous over a free and grateful People.

Signed in Preſence, and at the Deſire of the General Meeting, by

And. Fletcher, Principal Keeper.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Jurats and Commonalty of the Town and Port of New Romney, has been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Jurats and Commonalty of the Town and Port of New Romney, one of the Cinque Ports.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE the Mayor, Jurats and Commonalty of the Town and Port of New Romney, one of your Majeſty's Cinque-Ports, do, with the moſt unaffected Grief, condole with your Majeſty upon the very great Loſs your Majeſty and the Nation hath ſuſtained by the Death of your Royal Grandfather; a Loſs that could not have been retrieved by any other Means, than your Majeſty's immediate Succeſſion, on which happy Occaſion, we, with true and

and unfeigned Joy, humbly offer to your Sacred Perſon, our moſt ſincere Congratulations.

As we are gratefully ſenſible of the Bleſſings the Nation hath enjoyed under the wiſe and juſt Government of the two Kings of your Royal Houſe, your Majeſty's immediate Predeceſſors; Bleſſings, which, in former Times, even the moſt fortunate, have not, for ſo long a Series of Years, been, in any Degree, equalled; and as we are confident your Majeſty will continue them to us, we, from the Bottom of our Hearts, implore the Divine Providence to permit your Majeſty long to reign over us; and, when He ſhall take you to Himſelf, in the Fulneſs of your Days and Honour, that there never may be wanting a Prince of your Royal Line to prolong thoſe Bleſſings to our lateſt Poſterity.

Given under our Common Seal, the ſixteenth Day of December, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty, and in the Firſt Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

The following Addreſs of the Principal and Profeſſors of the Univerſity of Edinburgh, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Dr. Robert Hamilton, Profeſſor of Divinity in the ſaid Univerſity, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Principal and Profeſſors of your Univerſity of Edinburgh, humbly beg Leave to preſent to your Majeſty the moſt unfeigned Declaration of our Allegiance and Affection to your Sacred Perſon and Government.

Whilſt we condole with your Majeſty, and with your People, on the Death of the King our late moſt gracious Sovereign, of bleſſed and glorious Memory, we deſire to expreſs our humble Gratitude to Almighty God, who having been pleaſed, at ſo critical a Juncture, to call to His Mercy your Royal Grandfather, has raiſed up to Years of Maturity, in the Perſon of your Sacred Majeſty, a Guardian to that National Conſtitution, which has been hitherto ſignally preſerved under the Protectioon of your Illuſtrious Houſe, and which your Majeſty has in Publick graciouſly declared, that you are determined not only to preſerve, but to ſtrengthen.

Deeply affected with this Intimation of a Diſpoſition which we love and revere, it is with great Joy, that, to the united Voice of your People, we join the humble Expreſſions of our Confidence in your Majeſty's moſt gracious and upright Intentions. From ſuch Intentions we are aſſured, that under your auſpicious Reign, all national and important Objects will be happily purſued; Piety, Juſtice, and Virtue protected, and honoured, and every Branch of Learning or Science, which can invigorate or adorn the Manners of your People, eminently encouraged.

It ſhall be our conſtant Endeavour, Great Sir, to inſtill into the Minds of the Youth, committed to our Charge, juſt Principles of Religion and Loyalty; and, in every Inſtance, to give Proof of that Ardour, which we partake in common with your Majeſty's faithful Subjects, to ſupport your Government, and to maintain the Proteſtant Succeſſion to the Crown in your Illuſtrious Houſe. We are,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects and Servants,

The Principal and Profeſſors of your Univerſity of Edinburgh.

Edinburgh, Nov. 24, 1760.

The following Addreſs of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders and others of the County of Banff, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Right Hon. Lord Macduff, their Repreſentative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, and others of the County of Banff.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, and others of the County of Banff, humbly beg Leave to addreſs your Majeſty, and to offer our warm and unfeigned Congratulations on your happy Acceſſion to the Throne of your native Country.

This Event, as it has filled the Minds of all your Subjects with the moſt pleaſing Hopes of laſting Honour and Happineſs to theſe Kingdoms, has alſo ſerved to alleviate the Senſe of the unexpected and ſevere Loſs, which they ſincerely felt, on the Death of their late great and good Sovereign, your Majeſty's Royal Grandfather, whoſe Memory we revere, and whoſe gracious Attention to this Part of the Kingdom fills our Hearts with the moſt grateful Reſpect.

The united Voice and joyful Acclamations of a free and powerful Nation are the happy Omens, which mark the auſpicious Beginning of your Majeſty's Reign, and convince us, that our Expectations are well founded, that your Majeſty's acknowledged Wiſdom and Goodneſs will ever be employed to maintain the Conſtitution of Great Britain, to cement the Union of the two Parts of this Iſland, whoſe Intereſts are ſo inſeparably connected together, and to promote the Commerce, and real Welfare, of all your Majeſty's Subjects.

Confiding in your Majeſty's Royal Virtues, that even the remoteſt Parts of your Dominions ſhall ſhare in the Protection and Bleſſings of your Majeſty's Government, we humbly beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that our Loyalty and Fidelity ſhall be equal to that of the moſt Loyal of your Majeſty's Subjects.

Signed by Appointment of the Meeting at Banff, December 9, 1760, by Deſkfoord, Preſes.

The following Addreſs of the Freeholders and Heritors of the County of Elgin and Forres, has been preſented to His Majeſty by James Grant, Eſq; being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Freeholders and Heritors of the County of Elgin and Forres.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, humbly beg Leave to approach your ſacred Perſon, and to condole with your Majeſty the great Loſs the Nation has ſo lately ſuſtained by the Death of your Majeſty's Royal Grandfather, and our late moſt gracious Sovereign; by whoſe paternal Affection and Regard for the true Intereſt of His Kingdoms, our Liberties, both Religious and Civil, were ſecured during the Courſe of a long and proſperous Reign.

We ſhould have been inconſolable under that Loſs, if Divine Providence had not repaired it, by the happy Acceſſion of your Majeſty to the Throne; upon which auſpicious Event, may it pleaſe your Majeſty to accept our moſt humble, but warm Congratulations; an Event moſt ſeaſonable, happy and glorious, not to your Majeſty's Dominions only, but likewiſe to your faithful Allies, and to the Proteſtant Intereſt in all Parts of the World.

Your Majeſty's moſt gracious Speech from the Throne cannot but have filled the Breaſt of every true Briton with Pleaſure and Joy, as it affords the moſt ſolid Grounds to hope, that you will reign high in the Affections of a loyal People, who will look upon your Majeſty's Glory, and their Happineſs, as inſeparable; and make the Eaſe and Proſperity of your Reign, the great Object of their Attention.

May your Majeſty's precious Life be long preſerved, your Reign happy and glorious, your Councils cils inſpired with Wiſdom, your Arms both by Sea and Land crowned with continual Victory and Succeſs; and may the preſent War, by your Majeſty's wiſe Adminiſtration, terminate in a ſafe and honourable Peace.

Signed in Preſence, and by Order of the Meeting, by me their Preſes, at Elgin, the 10th of December, 1760. Harie Innes.

The two following Addreſſes of the Magiſtrates and Town-Council of the Borough of Forreſs, and of the Provoſt, Magiſtrates and Town-Council of the Borough of Inverneſs, have been preſented to His Majeſty by John Campbell, Eſq; their Repreſentative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magiſtrates and Town Council of the Burough of Forreſs, being ſenſibly affected with the great and ſudden Loſs of His late Majeſty of glorious Memory, humbly beg Leave to condole with your Majeſty, and expreſs our Sorrow upon this melancholy Occaſion.

But ſince Providence hath ſo amply ſupplied this Loſs, by your Majeſty's happy Acceſſion to the Throne, (which we moſt heartily congratulate) we think it our Duty to moderate our Grief, and enjoy that pleaſing Proſpect of Happineſs, which is opened to our View, under your Majeſty's Government.

We therefore humbly offer to your Majeſty all the Aſſurances that can be given of our affectionate Zeal to your Perſon and Government, not doubting but that your Majeſty will continue to ſupport (both in War and Peace) the Reputation of the Britiſh Name, already rendered illuſtrious by the many great and glorious Exploits performed by the Britiſh Arms, in every Part of the Globe, during the Courſe of the preſent War.

Signed in our Preſence, and by our Appointment, by James Dunbar.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Provoſt, Magiſtrates, and Town-Council of the Borough of Inverneſs.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, moſt humbly beg Leave to condole with your Majeſty upon the Death of your Auguſt Grandfather, of bleſſed Memory.

To be deprived of one of the beſt of Kings, under whoſe mild and fatherly Government his Subjects enjoyed all the National Bleſſings a free People could wiſh for, is an Event ſo afflicting, as would ſink us into the deepeſt Sorrow, if not immediately alleviated by your Majeſty's inheriting not only the Throne, but all the Princely Virtues of your Progenitors.

Permit us, Moſt gracious Sovereign, moſt humbly to congratulate your Majeſty upon your happy Acceſſion to the Crown of your Royal Anceſtors, and to teſtify our moſt ſincere Joy, that your Throne is filled with a King, who gave early Proof of that innate Virtue and Diſpoſition, cheriſhed and improved by the ſingular and ſolicitous Maternal Care of her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs Dowager of Wales, your moſt excellent Mother.

Your Majeſty's moſt gracious Declarations, that the Protecting the Sacred and Civil Liberties of your People, and Promoting their Happineſs, will be the Rule of your Government, is treading in the Paths of your glorious Anceſtors.

That your Reign over us may be glorious and happy, and your Days prolonged to the utmoſt Bounds of human Life, will be our ardent and conſtant Prayers to Heaven.

Sigued in our Name, and in our Preſence, at Inverneſs, the Sixth Day of December, 1760.

John Hoſſack, Provoſt.

The following Addreſs of the Provoſt, Baillies and Councilers of the Royal Burgh of Ayr, has been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Provoſt, Baillies and Councilers of the Royal Burgh of Ayr, in Common Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's ever dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provoſt, Baillies and Councilers of your Royal Burgh of Ayr, humbly beg Leave to offer our moſt ſincere Congratulations on your Majeſty's happy Acceſſion to the Throne of theſe Kingdoms.

The Death of our late moſt gracious Sovereign, your Royal Grandfather, of glorious Memory, which we ſincerely lament, muſt, at ſuch a critical Juncture of the publick Affairs, have filled our Hearts with very alarming Apprehenſions, if the Knowledge of your Majeſty's eminent Virtues, ſo early conſpicuous, had not diſſipated our Fears, and raiſed our Hopes, which laſt have been greatly enlivened and confirmed by your Majeſty's gracious Declaration in Council, of your warm Affection for this your native Country, publiſhed to the great Joy and Satisfaction of all your faithful Subjects.

Permit us, Great Sir, to aſſure you of our inviolable Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government; and that we will moſt readily and chearfully contribute, to the utmoſt of our Power, to ſupport your Majeſty in the Proſecution of this juſt and neceſſary War, hitherto attended with ſuch ſignal Succeſs, until your Majeſty ſhall be enabled to put an End to it by a ſafe and honourable Peace.

That your Majeſty's Reign over a loyal, free and happy People, may be long, proſperous and glorious; and that the Sceptre of theſe Realms may be ſwayed, till lateſt Poſterity, by the Deſcendants of your illuſtrious Family, Protectors of the Liberties of Mankind, and of our happy Conſtitution, ſhall ever be our moſt earneſt and ardent Prayer.

Signed by our Preſes, in our Preſence, and by our Appointment, this Twenty-ſixth Day of November, 1760 Years.

William Ferguſſon, Provoſt.

The following Addreſs of the Lord-Lieutenant, Nobility, High Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy, and others of the County of Souththampton, has been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE the Lord Lieutenant, Nobility, High Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy, and others of the County of Southampton, humbly beg Leave to condole your Majeſty on the great Loſs this Nation has ſuſtained by the Death of our late moſt gracious Sovereign, your Royal Grandfather; whoſe Memory will ever be revered for his mild and equal Government.

Our Concern, on this Occaſion, is juſtly moderated by your Majeſty's happy Acceſſion to the Throne, which we moſt heartily congratulate; and ſtrongly relying on your Majeſty's Royal Virtues and Declaration, entertain the certain Proſpect of our laſting Happineſs, in the Preſervation of our Religion, Laws and Liberties.

We ardently pray, that Divine Providence may continue to crown your Majeſty's Arms with Succeſs, and that, under your Direction, the preſent juſt and neceſſary War may terminate in a laſting and honourable Peace.

Animated with the trueſt Zeal and Attachment to your Service, we are aſſured your Majeſty will ſo rule over the Hearts of all your Subjects, that they will unite to expreſs their juſt Senſe of the Bleſſings they enjoy, by a conſtant and dutiful Obedience to your Government; and that every true Lover of this Country will join with us, in the ſincereſt Wiſhes, that that your Majesty's Reign may be long and prosperous over a grateful and loyal People.

In Witness whereof we have hereunto set our Hands, this Nineteenth Day of December, in the Year of our Lord 1760.

St. James's, December 30.

THE following Address of the Mayor, Jurats, Common-Council, Freemen, and other Inhabitants of the Town and Port of Sandwich, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Honourable Lord Viscount Conyngham, and John Clevland, Esq; their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Jurats, Common-Council, Freemen, and other Inhabitants of the Town and Port of Sandwich.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Jurats, Common Council, Freemen, and other Inhabitants of this your Town and Port, beg Leave, at the same Time we deplore the Loss of our late most gracious Sovereign of blessed Memory, to express our utmost Joy and Satisfaction in your Majesty's happy Succession to the Imperial Crown of these Realms, with the universal Applause of your Subjects.

We have before us a Prospect of the highest Satisfaction and Pleasure, whilst we see ourselves under the Government of a Prince, adorned with all the Royal Virtues necessary to make us a great and happy People.

Your Majesty's Declaration in Council gives us the strongest Assurance of our Religion, Laws and Liberties being protected, and confirms our most sanguine Hopes and Expectations.

May your Majesty's Reign be long and prosperous; and that we may never want one of your Illustrious Family to reign over us, is the sincere Prayer of your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects.

Given under our Common Seal, the 27th Day of December, 1760.

The following Address of the Bailiffs, Aldermen, and Free Burgesses of the Corporation of Morpeth, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiffs, Aldermen, and free Burgesses of the Corporation of Morpeth, beg Leave to address your Majesty, with Hearts most sensibly affected by the Death of your Illustrious Grandfather, our late most gracious Sovereign; a Loss of so interesting a Nature to the Welfare and Prosperity of these Kingdoms, as must necessarily be attended with most unhappy Consequences, if your Majesty's Virtues, and well known Attachment to our glorious Constitution both in Church and State, did not insure us every National Happiness we can hope for, from the full Enjoyment both of our Civil and Religious Liberties. To secure these invaluable Blessings to this Nation has been the favourite Object of your Majesty's Ancestors upon every Occasion, but of none more, than of those, by whose Precepts and Examples your Majesty's Mind has been so happily formed for the Government of your People.

Permit us therefore, with the most humble and affectionate Zeal, to congratulate your Majesty on your Accession to the Throne of these Kingdoms; and, in order that the Honour of this Nation may be transmitted down to our Posterity in its greatest Lustre, may God grant your Majesty a long Reign over a People, who, we trust, will always act so consistently with their Obligations, as to give the most convincing Proofs of their Duty, Loyalty, and Affection to your Majesty's Sacred Person and Government.

Given under our Common Seal, at Morpeth in the County of Northumberland, the thirteenth Day of December, in the Year of our Lord, One thousand seven hundred and sixty.

The Three following Addresses have been presented to His Majesty by Andrew Fletcher, Esq; Representative in Parliament for the Boroughs of North Berwick, Haddington and Jedburgh, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Baillies and Burgesses of the Borough of North Berwick.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Baillies and Burgesses of your Borough of North Berwick, humbly beg Leave to present to your Majesty our sincere Condoleance for our late most Gracious Sovereign; while, at the same Time, we look up at the eminent Virtues of His Successor.

Permit us, Sir, to approach your Sacred Person, with our Congratulations upon your Majesty's happy Accession to the Crown.

May your Majesty enjoy a long and happy Reign over a free and happy People; and may the vigorous Measures, which are now taken by your Majesty, soon terminate in a lasting and honourable Peace.

Signed by
Cha. Dalrymple, Baylie.

North-Berwick, December 14, 1760.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Magistrates and Town-Council of the Royal Borough of Haddington.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Town-Council of the Royal Borough of Haddington, beg Leave to condole with your Majesty on the great Loss your Majesty and your Kingdoms have sustained by the Death of His late Majesty your Royal Grandfather.

The great and many Blessings we enjoyed, during His long and prosperous Reign, fill our Hearts with Gratitude; and, at the same Time, we feel our Joy compleat, on seeing His Throne filled by your Majesty, the Heir of His Royal Virtues, as well as of His Dominions.

Your Majesty's known Goodness, Love of Virtue, and the Confidence you have been graciously pleased to express in the Affections of your Subjects, are the surest Pledges that our Rights and Liberties shall be guarded, and secure under your Administration.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our unfeigned Loyalty and Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and will, to the utmost of our Power, take every Opportunity to promote your Majesty's Glory, and the Prosperity of your Kingdoms.

Done at Haddington the 9th of December, 1760, and signed in Presence, and by Appointment of the Magistrates and Town Council of Haddington, by Robert Thomson, Provost.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provost, Baillies, Town-Council and Burgesses of the Burgh of Jedburgh, in Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Baillies, Town-Council and Burgesses of the Burgh of Jedburgh, this Day in Council assembled, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty upon your happy and peaceable Accession to the Imperial Crown of Great Britain; while, while, with the greateſt Regret and Sorrow, we mourn the Death of our late Auguſt Sovereign, your Majeſty's Royal Grandfather, of bleſſed Memory, which, in ſo critical a Juncture (ſevere as it was) would ſtill have been more ſo, if in your Illuſtrious Perſon he had not been ſucceeded in all the Princely Virtues and Qualifications, which have always adorned your Royal Family.

It is with the moſt exquiſite Pleaſure and Joy, we read, in your Majeſty's moſt gracious Speech to your Parliament, "Your firm and invariable Reſolution "to adhere to, and ſtrengthen this excellent Conſti-"tution in Church and State, and to maintain the "Toleration inviolable."

May you reign in the Hearts of all your Subjects, as well as over them: And as we earneſtly beg that your Councils at home may be bleſſed, ſo we implore Succeſs upon your Majeſty's Arms abroad both by Sea and Land, and upon your Proteſtant Allies in Germany. And may Quebeck, Montreal, and your other Conqueſts in the Eaſt and Weſt Indies, be laſting Trophies of your wiſe Councils, executed by the Bravery of your Commanders, and the Intrepidity of your Troops. And we ſincerely pray, that this expenſive, though juſt and neceſſary War in which you are engaged, may ſoon terminate in a laſting and honourable Peace; and that your Majeſty's Reign may be long, proſperous, and peaceable, over a free, happy, and united People.

Signed in our Preſence, and by our Order, this Fourth Day of December, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty Years; and the Seal of the Burrow is hereunto affixed, By William Turnbull, Provoſt.

The following Addreſs of the Nobility, Freeholders, and Heritors of the County of Stirling, has been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Freeholders, and Heritors of the County of Sterling, humbly beg Leave to condole with your Majeſty on the Death of your Royal Grandfather, our late moſt gracious Sovereign, whoſe juſt and glorious Reign will render His Memory ever dear to theſe Kingdoms.

With the moſt ſincere Joy we congratulate your Majeſty upon your happy Acceſſion to the Throne of your Anceſtors.

Your Majeſty's early and repeated Declarations of your firm Reſolutions to promote the Welfare and Happineſs of your Subjects, call for the warmeſt Returns of Duty and Loyalty from a grateful and affectionate People, and give us the fulleſt Confidence, that the Happineſs and Glory of Britain will be carried to its higheſt Perfection, under the Rule of a Prince, who is not only Heir to the Crown, but to the Virtues of His Illuſtrious Predeceſſor.

Permit us therefore, Sir, to expreſs our Zeal and Affection for your Royal Perſon, and to aſſure your Majeſty, that we will, on every Occaſion, exert our utmoſt Endeavours for the Support and Security of your Majeſty's Government.

May your Majeſty's Councils continue to be guided by Wiſdom, and your Arms to be attended with Victory and Succeſs: May your Majeſty long be the great Protector of the Religion, Laws, and Liberty of your Kingdoms; and may there never be wanting a Prince of your Illuſtrious Houſe, to perpetuate thoſe Bleſſings to a brave, free, flouriſhing, and loyal People.

Signed by our Appointment, and in our Name and Preſence, by Napier, Preſes.

Stirling, Dec. 15. 1760.

The following Addreſs of the Provoſt, Magiſtrates, and Town Council and Community of the Borough of Inverbervie, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Right Hon. the Earl Panmure, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Provoſt, Magiſtrates and Town Council and Community of the Borough of Inverbervie.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provoſt, Magiſtrates, Town Council and Community of the Borough of Inverbervie, beg Leave, in the moſt humble Manner, to join in the univerſal Condoleance upon the Death of your Majeſty's Royal Grandfather, our late moſt gracious Sovereign, by whoſe ſteady Purſuit of Meaſures moſt conducive to the Honour of His Crown, and Intereſts of His People, theſe Meaſures have been bleſſed with Succeſs; and to congratulate your Majeſty on your happy Acceſſion to the Throne of theſe Kingdoms.

We are happy to ſee, on this Occaſion, Party-Diviſion entirely extinguiſhed, Harmony at home, and Succeſs every where attending the Britiſh Arms abroad; which give us Hopes, that the Enemies of Great Britain will ſoon be ſatisfied, that their Attempts to encroach on the Rights and Liberties of your Majeſty's Dominions are in vain, and make them ſue for Peace, and accept of it on Terms ſuitable to your Majeſty's Dignity, the Succeſs of your Arms, and Intereſt of your Subjects.

We with Joy take this Opportunity of aſſuring your Majeſty of our inviolable Attachment to your Royal Perſon and Government, and of expreſſing our moſt ardent Wiſhes, that Almighty God may grant your Majeſty Length of Days to ſway the Sceptre of theſe Realms over a People, whoſe Loyalty and Affections ſhall make your Reign happy.

Signed by Appointment, Arbuthnott, Provoſt.

Inverbervie, Dec. 11, 1760.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Jurats, Bailiffs, Burgeſſes, and Recorder of the Borough of Queenborough, has been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Jurats, Bailiffs, Burgeſſes, and Recorder of the Borough of Queenborough in the County of Kent, approach your Sacred Perſon with the greateſt Humility, to expreſs our unfeigned Sorrow for the Death of our late moſt Illuſtrious Sovereign, your Majeſty's Royal Grandfather, to whoſe paternal Care and ſteady Attention to the Intereſt of His Subjects, theſe Kingdoms are indebted for that State of Happineſs and Proſperity, which they enjoy at home, and for that Succeſs and Honour which has attended their Arms abroad, in the Proſecution of a juſt and neceſſary War.

We look up to your Majeſty as the Inheritor of the Virtues and Kingdoms of your Royal Anceſtor, as the happy and glorious Inſtrument in the Hand of Providence, to ſupport the Honour and Dignity of the Britiſh Crown, and to continue the Luſtre of its Arms, till it ſhall pleaſe God to crown your own and your People's Happineſs with the Bleſſing of a laſting and honourable Peace.

We form to ourſelves the moſt pleaſing Hopes of a future Happineſs from your Majeſty's gracious Declarations, and from the many Virtues which ſhine forth ſo early in your Royal Breaſt.

May your Majeſty's great Example long continue to direct and influence the Conduct of your faithful Subjects, and may they contribute to the Honour and Happineſs of your Majeſty's Reign, by their ſteady Conformity to the Laws, and their firm Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government.

Given under our Common Seal, this 22d Day of December, 1760.

Hague,

Hague, December 23. By the laſt Advices from the Army, on the other Side of the Weſer, under the Command of Prince Ferdinand of Brunſwick, we find, that his Serene Highneſs had been under the Neceſſity of changing the Cantonments of his Troops, and placing them at a Diſtance from Gottingen, on Account of the Impoſſibility of ſupplying them with Proviſions and Forage, in their late Situation, from the Inclemency of the Seaſon, and Badneſs of the Roads; and that his Highneſs's Head Quarters were on the 15th at Uſſar. We hear likewiſe from Warbourg, that the Troops that were on the Dymel, are gone into Quarters of Cantonments: The Britiſh Guards have theirs at Paderborn, where the Marqueſs of Granby was ſoon expected.

The greateſt Part of the Corps under the Hereditary Prince of Brunſwick, is gone into Quarters in the Biſhoprick of Munſter: And the French on the Lower Rhine are quiet in theirs, which reach from Cleves to Cologne.

Marſhal Broglio's Head Quarters are at Caſſel, and the Army under him extends itſelf towards the Upper Rhine.

The Letters from Saxony mention nothing material, that has paſſed there lately: The King of Pruſſia was at Leipſig, and General O'Donnel at Dreſden.

On Thurſday laſt, the 18th Inſtant, the Princeſs of Naſſau-Weilbourg was ſafely delivered of a Son, to the great and univerſal Satisfaction of the People of this Country.

Whitehall, December 16, 1760.

Whereas it hath been humbly repreſented to the King, that on the 13th Day of this Inſtant December, between the Hours of Five and Eleven in the Evening, the Dwelling-houſe of Iſaac Pacatus Shard, Eſq; at Peckham in the County of Surry, was maliciouſly attempted to be burned down, by ſetting Fire to the Bed and Bed-Cloaths of a ſpare Bed-Chamber, and to the Toilet in the ſaid Room, which ſtood at ſuch a Diſtance from the ſaid Bed, as to have no poſſible Communication with the ſame; His Majeſty, for the better Diſcovery, and bringing to Juſtice, the Perſon or Perſons concerned therein, is pleaſed to promiſe His moſt gracious Pardon, to any one of them, except the Perſon who actually ſet Fire to the ſaid Bed, Bedcloaths, and Toilet, who ſhall diſcover his, her, or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, ſo as he, ſhe, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof. W. PITT.

And as a further Encouragement, I the ſaid Iſaac Pacatus Shard, do hereby promiſe a Reward of One Hundred Pounds to any Perſon making ſuch Diſcovery as aforeſaid, to be paid on the Conviction of any of the Offenders. J. P. Shard.

December 29, 1760.

The annual General Meeting of His Majeſty's Lieutenants, and of the Deputy Lieutenants of the County of Buckingham, is appointed to be holden at the Red Lyon in High Wycombe, on Tueſday the 13th of January next, (being the Day fixed by Act of Parliament). And the Nobility, Gentry and Clergy of the ſaid County are deſired to meet at Aylesbury, on Thurſday the 15th of the ſaid January, (being the firſt Day of the Quarter Seſſions) in order to conſider of a proper Addreſs to be preſented to the King.

By Order of the Earl Temple, Lord Lieutenant, Aſhwell, Clerk of the General Meetings.

Navy Office, December 15, 1760.

The Principal Officers and Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Navy give Notice, that on Monday the 5th of next Month, at Eleven o'Clock in the Morning preciſely, they will be ready to treat with ſuch Perſons as are willing to ſupply His Majeſty's Yards at Deptford and Woolwich with Braziers Wares on a ſtanding Contract, that they may attend with their Propoſals at that Time.

Navy Office, December 23, 1760.

The Principal Officers and Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Navy give Notice, that on Tueſday the 6th of January 1761, at Eleven o'Clock in the Morning, they will expoſe to Sale at this Office, Several Lots of old Stores, conſiſting of Paper Stuff in Junk, and old Ropes, decayed large Engines, Ship Engines, Scale-Beams, and Steel Yards, old hammered Iron in broken Kettles, old Caſt in broken Potts, &c. and a Parcel of decayed Poop and Hand Lanthorns, lying at His Majeſty's Yard at Deptford; where ſuch Perſons as are willing to be Purchaſers, may have the Liberty of viewing them any Time in the common Working Hours of the Yard, till the Day of Sale: And as a Depoſit of 25 l. per Cent. or in Proportion thereto, is to be made by the Perſons who ſhall purchaſe the ſaid Stores, all Perſons that ſhall attend the ſaid Sale, are to take Notice thereof, and come prepared for that Purpoſe. And unleſs the Stores ſo purchaſed ſhall be paid for and taken away at the End of forty Days, after the Day of Sale, the Depoſit ſhall be forfeited, and become the Property of the Crown.

December 23, 1760.

Notice is hereby given to the Officers and Company of His Majeſty's Ships undermentioned, that they will be paid their Prize Money as follows:

The Firm and Minerva, for retaking the Prince Ferdinand Schooner, on Monday the 9th of February next, at the Navy Coffee-houſe, Crutched Friars.

The Richmond, for taking the Entrepenant Privateer, on Board at Sheerneſs, the 6th of January next.

The Infernal Bomb, for retaking the Reſolution, on Board at Portſmouth, the 5th of January next.

And the Shares not then demanded, may be received on Monday the 9th of February, at the above Coffee Houſe, and the Recalls the firſt Monday in every Month for three Years to come.
